Joe Bowden

Business Analyst

Joe Bowden is an expert in process development and implementation. As Business Analyst at IPC Global Solutions, Joe embraces Business Intelligence – mining IPC’s business data in search of useful information that can be used to improve processes across the business. As a Six Sigma Green Belt and ISO 9001-2015 Auditor, Joe believes in solving problems at their root causes rather than treating the symptoms.

During his tenure with IPC, Joe has led projects to implement Customer Relationship Management (CRM) software as well as a Warehouse Management System (WMS). In addition to data analysis, process consulting, and technical troubleshooting, Joe builds and maintains SQL-based reports that provide real-time information to decision-makers throughout IPC.

As a Six Sigma Green Belt and ISO 9001-2015 Auditor, Joe believes in solving problems at their root causes rather than treating the symptoms.

Joe holds an MBA in Leadership and Organizational Transformation from Boston University as well as a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Boston College. Joe’s volunteer interests include serving as the Chair of Congressional Debate for the Massachusetts Speech and Debate League, as well as serving on the Tournament Committee at LeBaron Hills Country Club in Lakeville, MA. He resides in Canton, MA. In his leisure time, he enjoys playing golf, skiing, cooking, staying fit, and listening to health and wellness podcasts.
